

ITHACA LEADERSHIP SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Ithaca College is offering up to 60 Ithaca Leadership Scholarships to incoming students. These awards recognize students who have demonstrated active participation and leadership abilities through school activities, community service, leadership groups, and paid employment. The Leadership Scholars program at Ithaca College provides a network of peers and resources; educational opportunities to enhance leadership skills and knowledge; and strategies for participants to effectively market themselves as distinct leaders. To continuously receive the scholarship, scholars must attend mandatory meetings two to three times per semester; develop a leadership portfolio that demonstrates personal leadership development activities, campus involvement, and community service participation; and maintain a 2.75 cumulative GPA. For more information about the Leadership Scholars program, please visit our website: www.ithaca.edu/leadership.

How long and in what capacity have you known this student?

What leadership qualities has this student demonstrated to you?

Please describe the nature of the student's work in any of the following categories: academic clubs, cocurricular and extracurricular activities, community service, volunteer work, peer education, leadership groups, internships, and paid employment.
