

Comments from students:

- * “The most important thing that I have learned from her is that old people experience negative attitudes or discrimination occasionally. That surprised me because in my mind, I thought old people were often treated nicely, and gentle.”
- * “She is funny and cool, and I’m sure that when she was my age, she was a lot like me.”
- * “The only thing I can think of to group older people together is their age. They are as varied and different as everybody else in the world.”
- * “I had expected him to be boring, but I was very mistaken. I would love to just visit and talk to him again.”
- * “I have only ever known my grandmother as an older woman. I never got to know her when she was younger. It was nice to find out about a side of her that I didn’t know existed.”
- * “Hearing her personal perspective on history was extremely interesting.”
- * “I feel really excited to be able to hear all the experiences that she had.”
