

Getting from Me to Them to Us: Successful Student Learning Design and Assessment Fall Faculty Welcome Workshop Center for Faculty Excellence

Saturday, August 29, 2009

Park Center for Sustainable Enterprise Atrium and 104

9:00 am – 1:00 pm

Open to All who Teach at Ithaca College

This interactive workshop is designed around the classic Teaching Goals Inventory and the valuable book, Classroom Assessment Techniques. Diversity among us and our students is the underlying theme as we examine our teaching goals and design and assess activities to help students meet them. Participants will complete the TGI online in advance and will receive a copy of Classroom Assessment Techniques.

- 9:00 Who am I at Ithaca College?
Explore the identities you bring to your students?
- 9:45 What do I want them to learn?
Select a course and identify primary objectives using the Teaching Goals Inventory
- 10:30 What will help me help them?
Explore the resources of the book Classroom Assessment Techniques
- 11:15 What will help ME here at Ithaca?
Register for your own Mentoring Group
- 12:00 Lunch and welcome by Associate Provost Carol Henderson

Please register by August 21 online using the link at the Center for Faculty Excellence:

<http://www.ithaca.edu/cfe/> or paste this url into your browser:

<http://spreadsheets.google.com/viewform?formkey=dFZaR1YtMW5UZ0kxTENVY3dUUzVFQmc6MA>

Note about the Saturday meeting:

This is the only event of the Center for Faculty Excellence scheduled on a weekend or evening. We understand that family or religious commitments may make it impossible for you to attend. If childcare would help, please contact Susanne Morgan.

Center for Faculty Excellence: <http://www.ithaca.edu/cfe>