

Native American Celebration Month

November 2008 ** Ithaca College ** Native American Studies

Nov. 1 Field Trip to the Cayuga Homeland & Cayuga SHARE Farm

(bus leaves Textor flagpole circle at 10:30am, space limited reserve a spot early) Join us for a variety of activities at the farm with caretaker Dan Hill (Cayuga Heron Clan). We'll be fencing the tress for winter, working in the apple orchard, and taking a guided hike into Great Gully to pick up trash.

Behind the falls, Great Gully (photo Fred Bertram)

Nov. 3st 12:00pm, Ceremonial Raising of the Haudenosaunee Flag, with Cayuga representatives. Egbert Student Union Flagpole.

Nov. 3rd 4pm, "Restoration and Reciprocity: Finding Common Ground between Traditional and Scientific Ecological Knowledge" Klingenstein Lounge.

Dr. Robin Kimmerer (Potawatomi), Director of the Center for Native Peoples and the Environment, is an Associate Professor of Environmental and Forest Biology at SUNY- College of Environmental Science and Forestry. She is the author of numerous scientific articles, and the book Gathering Moss: A Natural and Cultural History of Mosses, for which she received the John Burroughs Medal Award. As a Native American scholar, she combines her heritage and passion for the environment with scientific perspectives to help lead the way with integrative solutions for the environmental challenges we are facing in the 21st century.

Nov. 19th 7pm, New York's Missing Link: The Sullivan-Clinton Campaign, Then and Now. Williams 221, with Robert Spiegelman in a tour-de-force presentation combining fresh research, dramatic visuals and unique animated maps to explore the Sullivan-Clinton Campaign's dark origins, key players, main events, tragic and victorious aftermaths, and lasting results. Beyond the military operation, he shows its impact on native culture, the land and today's environment. A great opportunity for teachers who want to learn about the interactive website and bring this fateful historic event into the classroom. See also <http://www.sullivanclinton.com/>

All events are free and open to the public.

For more information contact Brooke Hansen at 274-1735 or kbhansen@ithaca.edu,

To find out more about the Native American Studies Minor, go to http://www.ithaca.edu/hs/minors/native\_american/

