(b) COURSES DEVELOPED

All courses listed above except Principles of Micro and Macro Economics, Statistics, and Production Management. In addition, developed the finance courses of Real Estate Finance, Insurance and Risk Management, Financial Planning and Investment, and Corporate Financial Management (MBA course).

(c) CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT

Both the Finance major as well as the International Business major at Ithaca College were essentially developed by me over the years. The Finance major has been in force since 1976 and was revised (by me) in the 1982-83 academic year. The International Business major is the latest addition to the Business School's offerings. It became effective in Spring, 1988. I was also responsible for the creation of the International Business Studies minor in 1979. I took the leadership in restructuring the Business School curricula in 1996-97, creating the Business Administration degree with various concentrations.

Service to the College

- All College Tenure and Promotion Committee: Served as one of the five members between 1985-1988. During my tenure, we made substantive changes in the T&P procedure so as to standardize the tenure review process across the College. Again served in the Committee between 1997-2000. Was the Chairman of the T&P Committee for 1998-1999. We proposed revisions in the guidelines for file preparation that were later approved with some modifications. I served as a member of the All College T&P Appeals Committee in 1980-81
- Academic Policies Committee: Beginning in 1977-78 academic year, I served in this all College committee for approximately ten years through 1987-88, with a break for a year when I was abroad on sabbatical leave during 1981-82. I was a member of the Task Force of the APC in 1977 that reviewed the curriculum and recommended the approval of the Medical Records Administration. I was elected co-Chairperson of the APC in 1978-79, and was reelected in 1979-80. I also served as Chairman of the APC's Curriculum Sub-Committee for a number of years after my sabbatical year of 1981-82.
- Faculty Handbook Amendment Committee: Beginning in 1996 and ending in 2002 I served in the Committee, the last two years as the Chairperson. During my sojourn, we initiated amendments to the Handbook that were approved by the College. Our Committee also overhauled the Handbook to become the Policy Manual IV of the Governance Documents.

- All College Grievance Committee: Member for 1996-1998. Tackled some ticklish grievances with reasonable satisfaction to all parties.
- Center for the Study of Race, Culture, and Ethnicity: Steering Committee member since 1999 when it was called Center for Race and Ethnicity. Helped in creating the curriculum and the Minors offered by the Center.
- Gerontology Institute Council: Steering Committee member and the member of the Curriculum Committee in 1999-2002. Helped in the preparation of the curricula for the Minors in Gerontology.
- Advisory Group on International Programs: 1998-2002. Helped in creating new exchange programs in Czech Republic, Ireland, and Australia.
- Institutional Advancement Committee: Member, 2001-2002. Recommended measures for advancing the College by enhancing alumni relations, fund raising, increased interactions with the retired faculty, and the creation of a faculty speakers Bureau.
- All College Faculty Development Committee: Member 2000-2003. Was one of the original members of the Faculty Enrichment Committee, precursor to the All College Faculty Development Committee (1982-84), and initiated the New Faculty Orientation Program, and facilitated the initiation of the TABS (Teaching Analysis by Students) Program, administered by Spike Stamus for a number of years. The Committee's recommendation for creating funds for faculty enrichment activities resulted in the creation of the small grants' fund.
- International Studies Grant: Member, Steering Committee 1987 and 1988, and 1989- 1991. Successfully acquired two United States Education Department grants that allowed for internationalization of the curricula across the campus, creation of Minors in the languages, and paid for College wide workshops and seminars, and library acquisitions.
- Ithaca College Centennial Celebrations Committee: Member, 1990-1992. Helped in the creation of various programs for the celebration of the Ithaca College Centennial.
- Community Council: precursor to the Faculty Council, Staff Council, and the Student Government (?), Elected representative of the Division of Business Administration, 1975-76 and 1976-77. Helped to do away with "N" in the Student transcript (N stood for "not for transcript" otherwise known as "nifty."). I prepared the position papers to increase the number of representative from the Business from one member to two in the Community Council, and the move to rename Division of Business Administration to School of Business, successfully.
- Center for Individual and Interdisciplinary Studies: Member, Steering Committee, 1976-77 and 1977-78. In that capacity evaluated and selected interdisciplinary course proposals and programs offered by the CIIS.
- Phi Kappa Phi National Honor Society: Secretary-Treasurer 1979-1981, 1982-1983. President 1983-85 (served in the Executive Board for six years, two years as President-elect, two years as President, and two years as past president). Successfully created the Chapter Bylaws, and the Chapter Scholarship Program. Two Ithaca College Seniors earned Phi Kappa Phi National Scholarship for graduate studies during my tenure.
- Phi Beta Delta Honor Society for International Scholars: President, 2000-2002. Prepared the Bylaws of the Chapter, and initiated scholars into the honor society. I was the first President of Phi Beta Delta.
- Business School Building Stakeholder Committee: Member 2004-2005. Participating in the dialogue for building a sustainable facility.
- The Money Team: Member 2004. This committee explores the possibilities of fund raising for the new capital campaign of the College.
- Search Committees: Over the years I served in Deans Searches, Search Committees for Assistant/Associate Provosts, Directors for International Program, Director of Minority Affairs Office, Director of Career planning and Services, and the like.

Service to the Business School

- Chairman, Department of Finance and International Business: 2006-2007.

- Chairman, Department of Finance and International Business: 1987-1997.
- Chairman, Department of Accounting and Finance: 179-1981.

- Chairman, Full Professor Promotion Committee and the T&P Committee: 1998-2002. Helped in the formulation of tenure and promotion policies for the Business School. Also served as a member and Chairman of the T&P Committee in various years beginning in the 1970s.
- Faculty Development Committee: Chairperson, 2000-2002. Helped to formulate the criteria and policies with respect to faculty evaluations, intellectual contributions, and academic and professional qualifications. The Business School Governance Policy Manual was formulated by this committee in conjunction with the T&P Committee. I chaired both the committees.
- Curriculum Committee: I served in the Business School's Curriculum Committee throughout the 1970s, 1980s, and a better part of the 1990s. I helped in preparing the Business School program at the London Center in 1974-75 that lasted through the 1980s. I was instrumental in creating the Finance and the International Business Curricula, and helped in developing most of the courses for the two majors (now, Concentrations) and the minors.
- AACSB Accreditation Committee: Member, Steering Committee, 1991-1993. Helped in the Preparation of policies and documents for accreditation.
- Faculty Hiring and Dean Searches: I served as the chairperson or a member of the search committees for hiring Business School faculty and Deans beginning in 1975. Virtually, every present faculty member was hired during my tenure here in the Business School.
- Computer Literacy Committee and Personnel Committee: Served in these committees in the 1970s and 1980s. These committees were restructured in late 1980s.
- Business School Curriculum Restructuring —1996-1997: Took the leadership in restructuring the Majors in the Business School, from multiple Majors to Concentrations in Business Administration, in line with the AACSB expectations.
