

CITIZENS FOR TAX JUSTICE INTERNSHIP

Citizens for Tax Justice was formed in 1979 to give low- and middle-income working Americans a greater voice in the crafting of tax policy at the national, state and local levels. Interns assist with lobbying and researching efforts.

Award

Interns work for ten weeks over the summer and are paid ($230/week) through the Everett Internship Program.

Eligibility

Strong writing, researching, computer/math skills and a commitment to progressive issues a plus. Knowledge of tax policy is not necessary, but applicants should have some knowledge of basic economic principles and feel comfortable working with numbers.
