Academic Caps and Gowns

The custom of wearing academic caps and gowns is traced to the 12th century when most people wore long, flowing robes. By the 17th century, certain universities established the tradition of wearing apparel that distinguished different degrees and faculties. In 1895, the Intercollegiate Commission developed a code that regulated the design of gowns and hoods and their colors. You'll see today our doctoral candidates wearing gowns with three bars of velvet on each sleeve. Our master's candidates wear gowns with an oblong sleeve. The hoods are the most distinguishing part of the dress. They are lined in silk in the official academic colors of Ithaca College, and the trim color indicates the graduate's academic discipline.

Today, we will honor our candidates with their hoods, which they will wear at the Commencement ceremony.

Message from the President

DEAR GRADUATES:

Today marks a major milestone in your academic journey, and I am so proud to celebrate this moment with you. I give you my deepest congratulations on your amazing accomplishment and offer each of you my gratitude for how you enrich our IC family. This has been a historic, challenging year, and I admire your perseverance, your focus, and your commitment to mastering your field of study—no matter what.

I wish you much success and happiness as you move forward from this moment, out into your careers and your lives. And I ask that you please keep in touch with all of us here at IC—we will miss you, and we are so proud of you.

All my best,

SHIRLEY M. COLLADO

PRESIDENT, ITHACA COLLEGE

A 1974 graduate of Ithaca College, DIANE GAYESKI has spent much of her academic career in service to her alma mater. She joined the faculty in 1979 and served as dean for more than a decade. She holds a PhD in educational administration and instructional technology and is internationally recognized as a pioneer in the field of organizational learning and communication, business performance improvement, and educational technologies.

Gayeski has authored 14 books and coauthored the first book on interactive media. Her peers have recognized her with the Lifetime Achievement Award from the International Association of Business Communicators. At IC, she has been honored with both the Faculty Leadership Award and Excellence in Scholarship Award.

Among her awards and distinctions, Gayeski has inaugurated a number of programs at IC, including Women in Media Month, the Rod Serling Award for Advancing Social Justice through Popular Media, the John Keshishoglou Center for Global Communications Innovation, and S'Park, a signature IC course for first-year students that allows them to connect with alumni in the media industry.

During her time at the helm of the Park School, Gayeski led with a confident hand, ensuring that excellence and innovation remain hallmarks of an IC education.

Ithaca Forever

MUSIC Philip J. Lang '33

LYRICS Alicia Carpenter

Ithaca, forever shine your light on me;
In my heart together we shall always be.
And here's to Ithaca, my Ithaca, how beautiful you are:
Your towers high upon South Hill reach from stone to star.

Ithaca, forever I'll recall a smile,
Clasp a hand in friendship, walk a snowy mile.
And here's to Ithaca, my Ithaca—alma mater true;
Although I leave Cayuga's shore, I'll remember you.

Ithaca, forever guide us on our way;
Like a shining beacon light our night and day.
And here's to Ithaca, my Ithaca, how bright your vision seems;
May all your sons and daughters dare to live their dreams.
