Announcements

DIPLOMA DISTRIBUTION

An official diploma will be mailed to the address each student provided on their application for degree and will arrive approximately four weeks after graduation.

EVENT PHOTOGRAPHY

There will be professional photographers working to capture images of students individually just after they cross the stage. These photos will be available for sale to families within two to three days after the event. Your student will receive an email at that time with details. Photo proofs and additional information will also be mailed to each student's permanent address. Families may purchase photos but are not obligated to do so. A limited number of candid photos of the ceremony will be available at no cost to families via the Commencement website (ithaca.edu/commencement/december) within two weeks after the event.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Use the hashtag #ICGrads on Instagram and Twitter to share your favorite photos from Commencement and congratulate our graduates.

FLAGS

The flags of various countries displayed in the Athletics and Events Center honor the international students who are today receiving degrees. Ithaca College is fortunate in the diversity of its community as it prepares students to become worldly citizens.

MEDALLION

Following a tradition begun in 1992, the college's centennial year, each graduate has received a medallion inscribed with a quotation chosen by the college's president. This year the quotation comes from the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.: "Whatever affects one directly, affects all indirectly... I can never be what I ought to be until you are what you ought to be."

ANNOUNCER

Marc Webster, an associate professor of music performance, is the announcer.

Academic Regalia

The gowns and hoods worn on solemn academic occasions perpetuate traditions as old as the world's oldest universities. While European institutions display great diversity in the design and color of academic regalia, their American counterparts adopted a code of regulations that makes it possible for the academic community to identify from the cut of the gown and the color of the hood the wearer's degree, the subject in which it was conferred, and the institution that granted it. In recent years many colleges and universities have departed from the traditional black and adopted official colors for their academic gowns. Thus, the blue gowns with gold chevrons worn by the president and trustees of Ithaca College display the official colors of this institution.

The cut of the gown identifies the degree. The bachelor's gown has pointed sleeves and is worn closed. The master's gown has oblong-cut sleeves slit at the elbow and is worn open or closed. The doctor's gown, which is also worn open or closed, has bell-shaped sleeves, usually crossed with bands of velvet. The length of the hood also identifies the degree: 36 inches for a bachelor's, 42 inches for a master's, and 48 inches for a doctor's. The color of the hood's velvet binding identifies the wearer's specialized field of study. These colors include white for arts and letters, light brown for business, light blue for education, purple for law, lemon for library science, pink for music, sage green for physical education, blue for philosophy, gold for science, and red for theology.

The silk lining of the hood displays the color or colors of the institution awarding the degree. Earned and honorary degrees awarded by Ithaca College are shown by hoods lined in royal blue and crossed with gold chevrons.

Honor Cords and Stoles

HONOR CORDS

Commencement includes many traditions that have been passed down through generations. Among these traditions is the honor cord. The colors of the cords signify graduation honors based on high academic achievement. These honors, listed below, are associated with Latin phrases that indicate the level of distinction with which an academic degree is earned. Ithaca College confers three levels of Latin honors to undergraduates earning a bachelor's degree. The cumulative grade point average ranges for these honors are listed below. A minimum of 60 credits of coursework must be completed at Ithaca College to qualify for this recognition. The honors listed for the students in this program are based on their cumulative grade point average as calculated at the end of the previous fall term. Honors that appear on students' actual diplomas will be based on their final cumulative grade point average.

Blue and Gold Cord

Summa cum Laude 3.900 and above
(with highest honors)

Gold Cord

Magna cum Laude 3.700–3.899
(with great honors)

Blue Cord

Cum Laude 3.500–3.699
(with honors)

RAINBOW HONOR CORDS

Multicolored rainbow honor cords are worn by some of the LGBTQ and allied graduates at today's ceremony and by LGBTQ and allied students at colleges and universities throughout the world at commencement. Since 2003, IC students have received their cords and been celebrated at the annual rainbow reception, which highlights their achievements. The history of LGBTQ inclusion at Ithaca College would be impossible without the fearless and tireless efforts of its allies and supporters. The use of rainbow colors as a sign of diversity and inclusiveness is a long-standing tradition. The rainbow or pride flag was created by San Francisco artist Gilbert Baker in 1978. The colors symbolize diversity throughout LGBTQ communities and have individual significance: life (red), healing (orange), sunlight (yellow), nature (green), art/harmony (blue), and spirit (purple).

KENTE STOLES

The Kente stole is a patterned, rich, and handwoven cloth that originates with Akan weavers in present-day Ghana. For royalty throughout West Africa, kente is a sacred cloth worn only in times of extreme importance. Similarly, it has been an Ithaca College tradition to present Kente stoles to students of color who are a part of specific programs on campus to recognize their Commencement. The symbol on the Kente stoles, Nea Onnim No Sua A, Ohu, is a West African Adinkra symbol for "knowledge" and "a lifelong quest for learning."

VETERAN STOLES

Another Commencement tradition at Ithaca College is the presentation of stoles to graduating students who are veterans of the United States Armed Forces. The stoles, which display each student's branch of service, are offered to graduating veterans in recognition of and gratitude for their service in protecting our country and as a symbol of their self-sacrifice and service.

Commencement Speakers

STAFF COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Angélica Carrington

Director, Center for Inclusivity, Diversity, Equity and Social Change (IDEAS)

Angélica Carrington has over a decade of experience working in higher education. For the past 10 years, her mission has been to diversify the pipeline for careers in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM), particularly to include Latinx, first-generation, and Black, Indigenous, and people of color (BIPOC) students.

Carrington joined the Ithaca College community in January 2022 as the director of the Center for Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, and Social Change (IDEAS). In that role, she focuses on helping students navigate their identities at Ithaca College, find success at the institution, explore their career options, build their own social capital, and develop their unique voices. Carrington is committed to collaborating for more inclusion and the creation of safe spaces for people to be their true, authentic selves.

FACULTY COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Gavin Mayer

Assistant Professor of Musical Theatre and Directing

Gavin Mayer is a professional theatre director and an award-winning teacher. Originally from Greeley, Colorado, Mayer served as the director of theatre and theatre teacher at Pomona High School in Arvada, Colorado, for 11 years, where he also cofounded and led the Pomona Arts and Humanities Program—an arts integration cohort within the traditional school setting.

He earned a master of arts in directing from the Chicago College of Performing Arts at Roosevelt University and a master of fine arts in directing from the School of Theatre at Florida State University.

Mayer has worked extensively as a director at the Arvada Center for the Arts and Humanities, a League of Resident Theatres (LORT) stage B theatre in suburban Denver, where he has directed the world premiere and regional premieres of numerous musicals and plays. Some of his directing credits include Elf, the Musical, I'll Be Home for Christmas, The Mountaintop, White Christmas, Disney's Tarzan, She Loves Me, Curtains, Miracle on 34th Street, and Legally Blonde.

STUDENT SPEAKER

Anna Schmandt '23

Theatre Studies

In addition to her role as Ithaca College's senior class vice president, Anna Schmandt has held many other leadership roles on campus. She has served as the president and treasurer for

IC Showchoir and currently works as a student leadership consultant in the Office of Student Engagement. She is the proud recipient of the Class of 1985 Endowed Scholarship as well as the Jane Woods Werly '27 Endowed Scholarship for the 2023 school year. As a senior theatre studies major with an education minor, Schmandt says she always has something to do in the IC community. She is grateful to be speaking today and cannot wait to finish her college adventure!

Ithaca Forever

MUSIC Philip J. Lang '33

LYRICS Alicia Carpenter

Ithaca, forever shine your light on me,
In my heart together we shall always be.
And here's to Ithaca, my Ithaca, how beautiful you are.
Your towers high upon South Hill reach from stone to star.

Ithaca, forever I'll recall a smile,
Clasp a hand in friendship, walk a snowy mile.
And here's to Ithaca, my Ithaca—alma mater true.
Although I leave Cayuga's shore, I'll remember you.

Ithaca, forever guide us on our way,
Like a shining beacon light our night and day.
And here's to Ithaca, my Ithaca, how bright your vision seems.
May all your sons and daughters dare to live their dreams.
