

Requirements for the Minor in German Area Studies (fall 2013)

18 credits of German courses numbering GERM 10200 or above, with at least 6 credits at the 300-level. Up to 6 credits of German Area Studies courses may be substituted for German courses.

1.

	Course number	Course name	Credits	Grade*
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.	GERM-3_____
6.	GERM-3_____
TOTAL CREDITS IN THE MINOR:			18

*Please note that the School of Humanities and Sciences does not allow more than one course with a final grade below a C- to count towards the minor.

**German Area Studies courses: A list of German Area Studies courses that can count for the major is available each semester from the DMLL. A waiver form (available from the DMLL) must be submitted after taking a German Area Studies course to ensure that it is counted towards the major.

***Up to 6 credits of courses taken in one semester abroad, or 9 credits of courses taken in a year abroad, can count towards the minor, pending approval via the petition process.